Media Advisory WPD Makes Narcotics Arrest

The Wichita Police Department (WPD) has arrested 32-year-old Sterling Fleming of Wichita on charges possession of narcotics with the intent to sell, possession of drug paraphernalia, and possession of marijuana with the intent to sell.

At approximately 8:30 a.m. today, WPD Special Weapons and Tactics (SWAT) team executed a search warrant at a room at the Afton Motel, 855 South Broadway, regarding an ongoing narcotics investigation.

Upon execution of the warrant, Flemming was located inside and arrested without further incident. During the investigation, officers recovered crack cocaine, marijuana, drug paraphernalia, a handgun, ammunition, and cash.

This investigation is ongoing, and it will be presented to the Sedgwick County District Attorney's Office.

The case number is 20C025628.
